RESIDENCE

Living Room/Hall

Living room is a room for relaxing and socializing in a residential house or apartment. Such a room is sometimes called a front room when it is near the main entrance at the front of the house.

Living room may contain furnishings such as

- sofa
- chairs
- occasional tables
- coffee tables
- bookshelves
- electric lamps
- rugs

Dining Room

A dining room is a room for consuming food.

Historically the dining room is furnished with a rather large dining table and a number of dining chairs; the most common shape is generally rectangular with two armed end chairs and an even number of un-armed side chairs along the long sides.

dining room design is more than just table and chairs. It includes spaces for a wait station & storage.

Study Room

A study is a room in a house that is used for paperwork, computer work, or reading.

A typical study might contain a

- desk
- chair
- computer desk
- lamps
- bookshelves
- file cabinets

Puja Room

A mandir or a puja room, a space designated for prayer, is an integral part of many Indian homes. According to vastu, the north-eastern corner of the home is recommended as the area of worship, but you can place your puja room anywhere.

Kitchen

A kitchen is a room or part of a room used for cooking and food preparation in a dwelling or in a commercial establishment. A modern middle-class residential kitchen is typically equipped with a stove, a sink with hot and cold running water, a refrigerator, and worktops and kitchen cabinets arranged according to a modular design. Many households have a microwave oven, a dishwasher, and other electric appliances. The main functions of a kitchen are to store, prepare and cook food. The room or area may also be used for dining, entertaining and laundry. The design and construction of kitchens is a huge market all over the world.
